2. In support of any interim application for compensation, the Trustee's counsel or other professional may file under seal the itemized and descriptive billing statements that would normally accompany such an application. Review of the billing statements filed under seal pursuant to this Order, by the United States Trustee or this Court, shall not be a waiver of any privilege or protection.

3. In lieu of public disclosure of itemized and descriptive billing statements, the Trustee's counsel or other professional shall disclose:

- (ii) a detail of reimbursable costs;

- (iv) any other specific information required by the applicable Rules to the extent such information does not disclose work product or other privileged information.

4. To the extent a creditor or interested party believes it should be able to review certain of the itemized and descriptive billing statements (i.e. for tasks potentially unrelated to pending litigation), such party may request the Trustee allow a partial review. If the parties cannot reach a resolution, such party may request a determination from this Court as to the confidentiality of the requested billing statements.

5. Any award granted pursuant to an application for compensation filed consistent with this Order shall be interim only, and subject to final review of all itemized and descriptive billing statements later disclosed at the conclusion of this case, and final approval by this Court and/or disgorgement upon final review by this Court.
